

FUNDRAISING WORK PLAN

Analysis of funding issues

Analyze current funding activities

Conduct a review of current fundraising programs, systems and resources.

Analyze other organizational issues

Conduct a preliminary audit of other organizational issues, including board and staff development, strategic planning, and organizational structure as they relate to fundraising capacity. Summarize this in a report that includes specific recommendations.

Determine long-range needs

Review strategic plan

Review plan for implications for long-term program directions. Identify program areas and their level of activity for a three-year period. Make recommendations for possible improvements to the strategic planning process.

Develop three-year budget

Determine funding needs for programs in each of the next three years, based on the strategic planning information. Budget forecast focuses initially on expenses and not revenues.

Develop funding source matrix

Identify the potential revenues to meet the expense needs of programs for the next three years. Identify the mix of revenues that will be applied to each program area.

Identify program options

Review organizational models

Look at theoretical models for structuring the fundraising program. Draw on specific organizational development models for examples.

Research other funding programs

Look at existing models for the fundraising program. Research the fundraising programs in place for similar organizations, including groups with both conservation and non-conservation program focuses.

Evaluate current funding programs

Drawing on the information from the fundraising analysis, develop specific issues that must be addressed to increase the fundraising capacity for your organization. Working with both staff and board members, identify possible strategies for improving these issues.

Develop fundraising strategies and policy recommendations

Narrow the list of strategies to the preferred list of organizational policies, including any specific changes to the organizational plan and structure. Develop specific recommendations to be presented to the board of directors for approval.
